Sometimes you need someone to listen.
We are there.
On equal terms and in your language.

Who is sponsoring and financing the project?

The sponsoring organization is the Islamic Community of Marburg e.V., and SOUL receives ideological and financial support from, among others, the Healthy City of Marburg.

Does confidentiality apply?

Yes, all information you provide us with during the consultation is confidential.

Are the SOUL consultants trained?

Yes, all consultants have experience in consulting and also participate in SOUL training.

What makes SOUL special?

It is important to us to reflect on prejudices and stereotypes. Our advisors have their own experiences of discrimination. They bring diverse cultural, religious, and linguistic backgrounds.

Do you have to pay anything or be a member of a club?

No, our consultations are independent of club or religious affiliation and are free of charge.

Is it possible to receive advice online?

In addition to in-person consultations, we also offer online consultations. However, initial consultations are currently only available in person.

Can you receive psychotherapy at SOUL?

No, we offer advice, but we are happy to help you find a psychotherapist.
